FOCUSING ON ADDICTION

To mark its 30th anniversary, Castle Craig Hospital in Scotland is launching an annual international essay writing competition for students. The competition is intended for all students of medicine, psychology, nursing, psychotherapy and social work.

Entrants can choose from 3 different essay questions on an aspect of addiction, and essays should be not more than 3000 words. Essays should be academic papers including references, and may rely on personal experiences, objective opinions or a general outlook.

Scan the barcode using your smartphone to enter the essay competition

THE THREE ESSAY QUESTIONS ARE:

- Is addiction to a drug a brain disease?
- What is the role of psychotherapy in realising and sustaining recovery from addiction?
- 'Society holds the solution to addiction because social problems are the main cause.'
Discuss.

Winning Prizes:

The award for 1st prize is £1,000, and there will be up to 5 runner-up prizes of £250. Additional notable submissions will receive a written commendation.

Closing date:

Submissions will be accepted until Midnight on the 30th of December 2018.
